These are the standard laminate patterns offered by Perpetual Enterprises. All other laminates require a special quote.

Open pattern laminates by Wilsonart (<http://www.wilsonartcontract.com>) are readily available and can be furnished without extended lead-times. Wilsonart laminates are generally available at a minimal or no up-charge. Price will be determined by the pattern number and quantity ordered.

Other high pressure laminate manufacturers are available. However, they may require an extended lead time and generally require an up-charge. Call with specifics for lead-time and pricing.
